

KILLEEN ARTS COMMISSION BOARD REDUCTION

OR-18-001

August 7, 2018

Arts Commission Background

2

- The Arts Commission promotes the arts and cultural enrichment in the city.
- Current Board Structure – 11 members
  - ▣ Three representatives of the major art forms:
    - Instrumental and vocal music, radio, television, tape, and sound recording;
    - Dance, drama, motion pictures, and creative writing; and
    - Folk art, painting, sculpture, photography, graphic and craft arts, architecture, design, and allied fields.
  - ▣ Educator with a background in the arts.
  - ▣ Seven (7) members of the public-at-large.

Arts Commission Background, cont.

3

- Arts Commission Board history
  - ▣ Prior to October 2004 - 9 member board.
  - ▣ October 2004 - 11 member board.
  - ▣ October 2005 - 13 member board.
  - ▣ September 2006 - 11 member board.
- Arts Commission recommend changes
  - ▣ On September 8, 2017, the Arts Commission voted to reduce board members by two public-at-large positions.
  - ▣ No impact to current board members.
    - One position is held by a member whose term expires September 30, 2018.
    - The other position is held by John Miller, who is eligible to move to the vacant folk art, painting, etc. major art form position.

Recommendation

- Staff recommends that City Council approve the ordinance reducing the Killeen Arts Commission Board by two public-at-large positions.
- Staff also recommends that City Council approve the resolution amending the Arts Commission Rules and Regulations reflecting the reduction in board members from 11 to 9.