

BUNNY TRAIL RENAMING

PH-25-022

May 6, 2025

Background

2

- On April 15th, Council approved a Motion of Direction to hold a Public Hearing regarding a request to rename Bunny Trail to A. L. Davis Trail in honor of (retired) Command Sergeant Major Alphonso Lee Davis, also known as the 'Killeen Running Man.'

Background

3

- ❑ The process for changing the name of a street is set forth in Killeen Code of Ordinances, Chapter 25, Article IV and in the City's adopted Naming Policy.
- ❑ Per Sec. 25-121, a public hearing on the proposed renaming must be held by the City Council prior to taking action.
- ❑ Staff notified the owners of ninety-seven (97) properties abutting Bunny Trail, and notice was published in the newspaper on April 20, 2025.

Renaming Policy

4

- Killeen Code of Ordinances Sec. 25-118(5) and the City's Renaming Policy state that applications for a street name change may be considered to "honor a person, place, institution, group, entity, event or similar subject."
- Sec. 6-1(c) of the City's Renaming Policy also provides that the renaming of a City street may be considered if an individual has made "exceptional contributions" to the City.

Estimated Cost

5

- The estimated cost for the proposed renaming is $4,056:

Materials: $2,347

Labor: $1,009

Equipment $700

Total: $4,056

Recommendation

6

- Staff recommends that the City Council hold a Public Hearing and consider the request to rename Bunny Trail to A. L. Davis Trail in honor of (retired) Command Sergeant Major Alphonso Lee Davis.
