Consider a memorandum/resolution appointing citizens to various boards and commissions.

DATE: November 6, 2018

TO: Ronald L. Olson, City Manager

FROM: Kathy Davis, City Attorney

SUBJECT: Boards and Commissions - Citizen Appointments

BACKGROUND AND FINDINGS:

The City Council made appointments to various Boards & Commissions at its September 11, 2018 regular meeting. There were four (4) seats on three (3) different boards that were not appointed at that meeting and since September 11, 2018, three (3) seats on two (2) different boards have been vacated and one (1) seat on a board has been filled by a specific representative. Also, at this time, the Chamber of Commerce and the Killeen Industrial Foundation have made their recommendations to appoint/re-appoint members to the Killeen Economic Development Corporation (KEDC). This resolution appoints citizen members to the recently vacated seats and the annual appointments to KEDC.

Prior to the annual board and commissions appointments being made, the Senior Citizen Advisory Board had five (5) members resign. At the time of consideration to fill vacant positions, the city only had three (3) citizen applications submitted. Since then, several more applications have been turned in for review and consideration to serve on the Senior Citizen Advisory Board.
